Site		C=contributing structure or site to the historic character of Block Island's scenic corridors, streetscapes or sense of place. NC=non-contributing site
National Register Eligible		Eligible to be nominated to the Natl. Register; research needs to be compiled on individual properties with this notation. This data is not complete for every record. The records noted have more than 75% original fabric and setting.
Past/Present Bldg Name		Names for some properties are referred to by different names depending on the generation and oral history. Some island families have up to 14 generations. Some families have had 5 or more generations living in the same house. Others are known by who lived in the house at a given time. Until a house plaque program is developed and a photo identification, this is an easy way to identify
Owner 2007		Compiled from Tax Assessor's database for New Shoreham, RI
Setting Significance		not completed for every record;included to help plan possible nominations by area of contributing sites and structures. Designation for future planning or GIS
Stone		Not complete as of 3/08 - noted if a site visit was made to property;not included in scope of work of this project.
